HOW DOES THIS MISSION FIT WITHIN THE ACCOMPANIMENT AND GLOBAL MISSIONS (MALARIA CAMPAIGN, WORLD HUNGER) INITIATIVES OF THE ELCA?

The recent Ebola outbreak was a powerful demonstration of the world’s interconnectedness. No longer was the disease “over there,” isolated to West Africa - it was a struggle mutually shared by all of humanity. The ELCA’s mission of accompaniment calls on Lutherans to share in global struggles and mutually work in vulnerable areas toward empowerment. Liberia is one of the poorest countries in the world; 42% of children experience stunting due to malnutrition and disease. By working with local tradespeople and electricians and endowing Phebe will lift up the people of Liberia and enable the staff at Phebe to address these challenges with renewed strength.
